

From Wednesday's Daily.

Prof. H. H. Miller, from Washington, Texas, is in the city, and has a room at Sturge's.

On Saturday, February 2, the first trial of the case of the late Mrs. J. T. McLaughlin, who was killed by a train, was held at the Santa Fe.

Hon. T. A. Finkel, district attorney of this judicial district, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Hon. W. H. Miller, United States attorney for New Mexico, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

G. V. Grady, who presides at the court house as assistant district clerk, is laid up for repairs. He is suffering with gout.

Mrs. M. G. Smith, from Kingman, Arizona, is on a visit to New Mexico's metropolis. She has a room at the Grand Central.

Miss Genevieve Peters and Miss Julia H. Weber, two ladies seeking health, are at the Hotel Highland registered from City of Mexico.

Justice Crumacker went up to Santa Fe last night to sit with the supreme court. Later on there will be a session at Albuquerque.

Charles T. Nicholson and wife and Miss Kate Radcliffe, returning from Portland, Ore., are in the city, and are at the Hotel Highland.

Mrs. A. K. Good, after a visit of several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. F. F. Kessler, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Peter Diefendorf, a wife of Troy, N. Y., is as well pleased with Albuquerque and the delightful winter climate that she has concluded to remain a few days.

Sam Supple, the general merchant and Indian trader located near Fort Wingate, came in from the west last night to purchase goods from L. M. at whole sale prices.

J. P. Goodlander, the well known commercial tourist for Meyers Row, the wholesale druggist of St. Louis, is still in the city, and is in doing a big business taking orders.

Silvester Mirabel, the wealthy sheep raiser of San Rafael, who has been here for the past two days, yesterday purchased two fine horses from the owner of H. B. Knight, the auctioneer.

The household effects and furniture of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maxwell, who were shipped to Gallup to-day, will be shipped to Santa Fe to-day.

H. G. Oils, editor of the Los Angeles Times, passed through the city last night on his way to Washington, D. C., where he will attend the funeral of Gen. H. W. Lawton, whose remains have just arrived at San Francisco from the Philippines.

Mrs. F. H. Mitchell, wife of the ex-mayor of Cerrillos, is in the city doing some shopping. The lady is registered at the Sturge's.

Walter Weinmann, accompanied by his father, Jacob Weinmann, east this evening. Walter will enter the military institute at Orono, Pa.

Clement Hightower, who was at Santa Fe on business, passed through the city this morning for his home in Socorro county.

Mrs. S. T. Douthett, accompanied by Mrs. A. F. Keith, expects to leave Saturday night for Southern California.

From Thursday's Daily.

Ed. Pickard, who was at Blandon business, has returned to the city.

W. F. Powers, route agent of the Wells, Fargo Express company, was a north bound passenger last night.

Hon. F. W. Clancy, after a stay of several days at Santa Fe, on legal matters, returned to the city last night.

Harry Peers continues very ill at the residence of George Champion. Mrs. Champion is in close attendance upon him day and night.

Attorneys H. D. Ferguson, Nellie B. Field, R. W. Dutton and Horton Moore left this morning for Santa Fe, where they have business before the territorial supreme court.

A. K. Laundslager, the Cerrillos miner who was here on a visit to his family, returned to Cerrillos this morning. He left some samples of ore on exhibition at a Railroad avenue store.

H. J. Seligman has had ruled, printed and bound at this office a day register for the Hotel Highland. It is probably the best piece of work in the nature of a complete hotel register ever seen in this city.

The El Paso News says that Col. C. F. Hunt is in the city again after a laborious trip through Mexico. He was thirty days and nights on the train, but his purchases of cattle fully compensate his labors.

The social committee of the Congregational Christian Knave society are preparing to give a social in the church parlors on Washington's birthday. The committee thus notify you early so you will not make other plans.

Ed. Clouthier, senior member of the grocery firm of Clouthier & Meigs, is around receiving congratulations from his many friends. At 7:40 this morning his estimable wife presented him with a beautiful baby boy, and in honor of the event the happy father has presented this child with a box of fine Havana cigars.

Harry Miles and wife, accompanied by H. R. Titts, left this morning for Santa Fe, where they will visit the family of Judge Meigs for a few days, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miles will continue on to their home in Wichita, Kansas, and Mr. Titts to Kansas City. Miss Carrie Titts remains in this city, as the guest of Mrs. G. L. Brooks.

The position of chief carrier at the San Jose market, so long held by Charles Metzger, will hereafter be filled by W. L. Arritt, of Kansas City, and who was formerly an expert carrier in the Swift packing house. Mr. Metzger expects to get away on his long journey to the Philippines to-night or to-morrow evening.

Word has been received from F. A. Matthei, who left this city about three weeks ago for Colorado Springs, Mo., that he and his family are very pleasant.

located a farm of thirty acres, a just outside of the city limits and within fifteen minutes' walk of the city. From all about the city, I have seen every one of the principles of the city. I was sure he was not a man who was a scientific man.

On February 2, the first trial of the case of the late Mrs. J. T. McLaughlin, who was killed by a train, was held at the Santa Fe.

Hon. T. A. Finkel, district attorney of this judicial district, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Hon. W. H. Miller, United States attorney for New Mexico, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

G. V. Grady, who presides at the court house as assistant district clerk, is laid up for repairs. He is suffering with gout.

Mrs. M. G. Smith, from Kingman, Arizona, is on a visit to New Mexico's metropolis. She has a room at the Grand Central.

Miss Genevieve Peters and Miss Julia H. Weber, two ladies seeking health, are at the Hotel Highland registered from City of Mexico.

Justice Crumacker went up to Santa Fe last night to sit with the supreme court. Later on there will be a session at Albuquerque.

Charles T. Nicholson and wife and Miss Kate Radcliffe, returning from Portland, Ore., are in the city, and are at the Hotel Highland.

Mrs. A. K. Good, after a visit of several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. F. F. Kessler, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Peter Diefendorf, a wife of Troy, N. Y., is as well pleased with Albuquerque and the delightful winter climate that she has concluded to remain a few days.

Sam Supple, the general merchant and Indian trader located near Fort Wingate, came in from the west last night to purchase goods from L. M. at whole sale prices.

J. P. Goodlander, the well known commercial tourist for Meyers Row, the wholesale druggist of St. Louis, is still in the city, and is in doing a big business taking orders.

Silvester Mirabel, the wealthy sheep raiser of San Rafael, who has been here for the past two days, yesterday purchased two fine horses from the owner of H. B. Knight, the auctioneer.

The household effects and furniture of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maxwell, who were shipped to Gallup to-day, will be shipped to Santa Fe to-day.

H. G. Oils, editor of the Los Angeles Times, passed through the city last night on his way to Washington, D. C., where he will attend the funeral of Gen. H. W. Lawton, whose remains have just arrived at San Francisco from the Philippines.

Mrs. F. H. Mitchell, wife of the ex-mayor of Cerrillos, is in the city doing some shopping. The lady is registered at the Sturge's.

Walter Weinmann, accompanied by his father, Jacob Weinmann, east this evening. Walter will enter the military institute at Orono, Pa.

Clement Hightower, who was at Santa Fe on business, passed through the city this morning for his home in Socorro county.

Mrs. S. T. Douthett, accompanied by Mrs. A. F. Keith, expects to leave Saturday night for Southern California.

From Thursday's Daily.

Ed. Pickard, who was at Blandon business, has returned to the city.

W. F. Powers, route agent of the Wells, Fargo Express company, was a north bound passenger last night.

Hon. F. W. Clancy, after a stay of several days at Santa Fe, on legal matters, returned to the city last night.

Harry Peers continues very ill at the residence of George Champion. Mrs. Champion is in close attendance upon him day and night.

Attorneys H. D. Ferguson, Nellie B. Field, R. W. Dutton and Horton Moore left this morning for Santa Fe, where they have business before the territorial supreme court.

A. K. Laundslager, the Cerrillos miner who was here on a visit to his family, returned to Cerrillos this morning. He left some samples of ore on exhibition at a Railroad avenue store.

H. J. Seligman has had ruled, printed and bound at this office a day register for the Hotel Highland. It is probably the best piece of work in the nature of a complete hotel register ever seen in this city.

The El Paso News says that Col. C. F. Hunt is in the city again after a laborious trip through Mexico. He was thirty days and nights on the train, but his purchases of cattle fully compensate his labors.

The social committee of the Congregational Christian Knave society are preparing to give a social in the church parlors on Washington's birthday. The committee thus notify you early so you will not make other plans.

Ed. Clouthier, senior member of the grocery firm of Clouthier & Meigs, is around receiving congratulations from his many friends. At 7:40 this morning his estimable wife presented him with a beautiful baby boy, and in honor of the event the happy father has presented this child with a box of fine Havana cigars.

Harry Miles and wife, accompanied by H. R. Titts, left this morning for Santa Fe, where they will visit the family of Judge Meigs for a few days, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miles will continue on to their home in Wichita, Kansas, and Mr. Titts to Kansas City. Miss Carrie Titts remains in this city, as the guest of Mrs. G. L. Brooks.

The position of chief carrier at the San Jose market, so long held by Charles Metzger, will hereafter be filled by W. L. Arritt, of Kansas City, and who was formerly an expert carrier in the Swift packing house. Mr. Metzger expects to get away on his long journey to the Philippines to-night or to-morrow evening.

Word has been received from F. A. Matthei, who left this city about three weeks ago for Colorado Springs, Mo., that he and his family are very pleasant.

located a farm of thirty acres, a just outside of the city limits and within fifteen minutes' walk of the city. From all about the city, I have seen every one of the principles of the city. I was sure he was not a man who was a scientific man.

On February 2, the first trial of the case of the late Mrs. J. T. McLaughlin, who was killed by a train, was held at the Santa Fe.

Hon. T. A. Finkel, district attorney of this judicial district, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Hon. W. H. Miller, United States attorney for New Mexico, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

G. V. Grady, who presides at the court house as assistant district clerk, is laid up for repairs. He is suffering with gout.

Mrs. M. G. Smith, from Kingman, Arizona, is on a visit to New Mexico's metropolis. She has a room at the Grand Central.

Miss Genevieve Peters and Miss Julia H. Weber, two ladies seeking health, are at the Hotel Highland registered from City of Mexico.

Justice Crumacker went up to Santa Fe last night to sit with the supreme court. Later on there will be a session at Albuquerque.

Charles T. Nicholson and wife and Miss Kate Radcliffe, returning from Portland, Ore., are in the city, and are at the Hotel Highland.

Mrs. A. K. Good, after a visit of several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. F. F. Kessler, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Peter Diefendorf, a wife of Troy, N. Y., is as well pleased with Albuquerque and the delightful winter climate that she has concluded to remain a few days.

Sam Supple, the general merchant and Indian trader located near Fort Wingate, came in from the west last night to purchase goods from L. M. at whole sale prices.

J. P. Goodlander, the well known commercial tourist for Meyers Row, the wholesale druggist of St. Louis, is still in the city, and is in doing a big business taking orders.

Silvester Mirabel, the wealthy sheep raiser of San Rafael, who has been here for the past two days, yesterday purchased two fine horses from the owner of H. B. Knight, the auctioneer.

The household effects and furniture of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maxwell, who were shipped to Gallup to-day, will be shipped to Santa Fe to-day.

H. G. Oils, editor of the Los Angeles Times, passed through the city last night on his way to Washington, D. C., where he will attend the funeral of Gen. H. W. Lawton, whose remains have just arrived at San Francisco from the Philippines.

Mrs. F. H. Mitchell, wife of the ex-mayor of Cerrillos, is in the city doing some shopping. The lady is registered at the Sturge's.

Walter Weinmann, accompanied by his father, Jacob Weinmann, east this evening. Walter will enter the military institute at Orono, Pa.

Clement Hightower, who was at Santa Fe on business, passed through the city this morning for his home in Socorro county.

Mrs. S. T. Douthett, accompanied by Mrs. A. F. Keith, expects to leave Saturday night for Southern California.

From Thursday's Daily.

Ed. Pickard, who was at Blandon business, has returned to the city.

W. F. Powers, route agent of the Wells, Fargo Express company, was a north bound passenger last night.

Hon. F. W. Clancy, after a stay of several days at Santa Fe, on legal matters, returned to the city last night.

Harry Peers continues very ill at the residence of George Champion. Mrs. Champion is in close attendance upon him day and night.

Attorneys H. D. Ferguson, Nellie B. Field, R. W. Dutton and Horton Moore left this morning for Santa Fe, where they have business before the territorial supreme court.

A. K. Laundslager, the Cerrillos miner who was here on a visit to his family, returned to Cerrillos this morning. He left some samples of ore on exhibition at a Railroad avenue store.

H. J. Seligman has had ruled, printed and bound at this office a day register for the Hotel Highland. It is probably the best piece of work in the nature of a complete hotel register ever seen in this city.

The El Paso News says that Col. C. F. Hunt is in the city again after a laborious trip through Mexico. He was thirty days and nights on the train, but his purchases of cattle fully compensate his labors.

The social committee of the Congregational Christian Knave society are preparing to give a social in the church parlors on Washington's birthday. The committee thus notify you early so you will not make other plans.

Ed. Clouthier, senior member of the grocery firm of Clouthier & Meigs, is around receiving congratulations from his many friends. At 7:40 this morning his estimable wife presented him with a beautiful baby boy, and in honor of the event the happy father has presented this child with a box of fine Havana cigars.

Harry Miles and wife, accompanied by H. R. Titts, left this morning for Santa Fe, where they will visit the family of Judge Meigs for a few days, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miles will continue on to their home in Wichita, Kansas, and Mr. Titts to Kansas City. Miss Carrie Titts remains in this city, as the guest of Mrs. G. L. Brooks.

The position of chief carrier at the San Jose market, so long held by Charles Metzger, will hereafter be filled by W. L. Arritt, of Kansas City, and who was formerly an expert carrier in the Swift packing house. Mr. Metzger expects to get away on his long journey to the Philippines to-night or to-morrow evening.

Word has been received from F. A. Matthei, who left this city about three weeks ago for Colorado Springs, Mo., that he and his family are very pleasant.

located a farm of thirty acres, a just outside of the city limits and within fifteen minutes' walk of the city. From all about the city, I have seen every one of the principles of the city. I was sure he was not a man who was a scientific man.

On February 2, the first trial of the case of the late Mrs. J. T. McLaughlin, who was killed by a train, was held at the Santa Fe.

Hon. T. A. Finkel, district attorney of this judicial district, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Hon. W. H. Miller, United States attorney for New Mexico, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

G. V. Grady, who presides at the court house as assistant district clerk, is laid up for repairs. He is suffering with gout.

Mrs. M. G. Smith, from Kingman, Arizona, is on a visit to New Mexico's metropolis. She has a room at the Grand Central.

Miss Genevieve Peters and Miss Julia H. Weber, two ladies seeking health, are at the Hotel Highland registered from City of Mexico.

Justice Crumacker went up to Santa Fe last night to sit with the supreme court. Later on there will be a session at Albuquerque.

Charles T. Nicholson and wife and Miss Kate Radcliffe, returning from Portland, Ore., are in the city, and are at the Hotel Highland.

Mrs. A. K. Good, after a visit of several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. F. F. Kessler, was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Peter Diefendorf, a wife of Troy, N. Y., is as well pleased with Albuquerque and the delightful winter climate that she has concluded to remain a few days.

Sam Supple, the general merchant and Indian trader located near Fort Wingate, came in from the west last night to purchase goods from L. M. at whole sale prices.

J. P. Goodlander, the well known commercial tourist for Meyers Row, the wholesale druggist of St. Louis, is still in the city, and is in doing a big business taking orders.

Silvester Mirabel, the wealthy sheep raiser of San Rafael, who has been here for the past two days, yesterday purchased two fine horses from the owner of H. B. Knight, the auctioneer.

The household effects and furniture of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maxwell, who were shipped to Gallup to-day, will be shipped to Santa Fe to-day.

H. G. Oils, editor of the Los Angeles Times, passed through the city last night on his way to Washington, D. C., where he will attend the funeral of Gen. H. W. Lawton, whose remains have just arrived at San Francisco from the Philippines.

Mrs. F. H. Mitchell, wife of the ex-mayor of Cerrillos, is in the city doing some shopping. The lady is registered at the Sturge's.

Walter Weinmann, accompanied by his father, Jacob Weinmann, east this evening. Walter will enter the military institute at Orono, Pa.

Clement Hightower, who was at Santa Fe on business, passed through the city this morning for his home in Socorro county.

Mrs. S. T. Douthett, accompanied by Mrs. A. F. Keith, expects to leave Saturday night for Southern California.

From Thursday's Daily.

Ed. Pickard, who was at Blandon business, has returned to the city.

W. F. Powers, route agent of the Wells, Fargo Express company, was a north bound passenger last night.

Hon. F. W. Clancy, after a stay of several days at Santa Fe, on legal matters, returned to the city last night.

Harry Peers continues very ill at the residence of George Champion. Mrs. Champion is in close attendance upon him day and night.

Attorneys H. D. Ferguson, Nellie B. Field, R. W. Dutton and Horton Moore left this morning for Santa Fe, where they have business before the territorial supreme court.

A. K. Laundslager, the Cerrillos miner who was here on a visit to his family, returned to Cerrillos this morning. He left some samples of ore on exhibition at a Railroad avenue store.

H. J. Seligman has had ruled, printed and bound at this office a day register for the Hotel Highland. It is probably the best piece of work in the nature of a complete hotel register ever seen in this city.

The El Paso News says that Col. C. F. Hunt is in the city again after a laborious trip through Mexico. He was thirty days and nights on the train, but his purchases of cattle fully compensate his labors.

The social committee of the Congregational Christian Knave society are preparing to give a social in the church parlors on Washington's birthday. The committee thus notify you early so you will not make other plans.

Ed. Clouthier, senior member of the grocery firm of Clouthier & Meigs, is around receiving congratulations from his many friends. At 7:40 this morning his estimable wife presented him with a beautiful baby boy, and in honor of the event the happy father has presented this child with a box of fine Havana cigars.

Harry Miles and wife, accompanied by H. R. Titts, left this morning for Santa Fe, where they will visit the family of Judge Meigs for a few days, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miles will continue on to their home in Wichita, Kansas, and Mr. Titts to Kansas City. Miss Carrie Titts remains in this city, as the guest of Mrs. G. L. Brooks.

The position of chief carrier at the San Jose market, so long held by Charles Metzger, will hereafter be filled by W. L. Arritt, of Kansas City, and who was formerly an expert carrier in the Swift packing house. Mr. Metzger expects to get away on his long journey to the Philippines to-night or to-morrow evening.

Word has been received from F. A. Matthei, who left this city about three weeks ago for Colorado Springs, Mo., that he and his family are very pleasant.

NEW MEXICO NOTES.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The commissioners will return to this city to-morrow night.

On February 22, Washington's birthday, the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company. The